Wakefield Broaches Scheme

James Wakefield of the board of harbor commissioners this afternoon presented at the meeting of the commissioners a striking scheme for harbor development on broad and far-reaching lines. The scheme dwells largely upon the possibilities for utilizing the space between the Alakea and Sierra docks, and involves the whole future of Honolulu as a port of commerce.

In outlining his plan, Mr. Wakefield said: "The development of the government wharves in Honolulu harbor should receive our very careful and immediate consideration, because the commercial future of our harbor is brim full of big things."

"Mr. Campbell has very courteously provided each of the commissioners with a large map of the Honolulu wharves and harbor, and in studying out the possibility of development, and improvement of wharf conditions to give the commerce of the port adequate and economical service, I am

Boom For Fern

Mayor Joseph J. Fern is in the hands of his friends, so far as his candidacy for Delegate is concerned. This is the statement that meets an inquiry as to the political movement that just now is gathering strength so rapidly that L. L. McCandless' supposedly recent hold on the Democratic nomination is seriously threatened.

And as Mayor Fern is in the hands of his friends his candidacy is pretty certain, because his friends are more active every day.

The Fern movement has reached the point where definite assurances are said to have been given that the Mayor will have some strong support from influential people as against McCandless.

Announcement of Fern's candidacy and his platform is expected to follow close upon the perfection of an organization to boom his candidacy generally. This organization, with its needed funds, is now in the process of formation. There is only a month and a half before the Territorial convention and it is exactly a month to the nominations. If the Fern boom is launched it should be within a week.

Fern's friends believe he can defeat McCandless. They are counting on both Maui and Hawaii to give him a number of delegates. Kauai, it is believed, will be a McCandless stronghold, but Oahu should help him.

Fern's platform is going to have a square deal for all, rich and poor alike, as the basic idea. That will need splitting up into planks and enlarging and elaborating, but the Mayor's idea will be to see that the sugar plantations don't get hammered as McCandless has hammered them in the past, and that the laborer gets an square deal as McCandless has promised.

Up to within the last few days, the

DELEGATE WON'T RETREAT BEFORE "KILL KUHIO" CRY

Delegate Kuhio this morning set at rest a lot of idle rumors that he contemplates immediate return to Washington by stating to the Bulletin that he will not go back to the mainland until after the convention to name delegates to the Republican National convention.

At the same time, he made it plain that he will stay here in Hawaii until the cry of "Kill Kuhio" that has been raised, has been silenced.

"I shall return to the mainland after the delegate convention," said the prince this morning. "I am determined to stay here as long as the cry of 'Kill Kuhio' is kept up. I will certainly not be driven away by it."

"I'm going to stay here and see that Kuhio is not 'killed.' I intend to go to the convention here to carry out my plans. It's up to the convention to decide what is the best public policy."

The Delegate has been laid up at home by a slight injury to his knee received at Pearl Harbor last Sunday, but this morning was able to be around town. It was reported today that the outgoing mail carried some important letters from the delegate to friends in Washington. The Delegate, however, declined to discuss the political situation except at quoted above.

REIDFORD ON THE GRILL AS TURNED BY BRECKONS

Under the questioning of United States District Attorney Robert W. Breckons, Robert Reidford, manager of Bishop Trust Company, this morning told an interested audience consisting of the jury and the idlers at the back of the Federal court, just how he goes about estimating the value of property. Reidford is the third witness who has been placed on the stand by the Cummins estate, one of the defendants in the Mahuka site case.

His direct examination was concluded yesterday morning by Attorney Olson and the cross-examination at the hands of Breckons started yesterday afternoon. Reidford during the direct quoted figures as to the valuation he placed on various properties in the vicinity of the Cummins estate on Port street and Breckons wants to know how he arrives at them.

The Method.

The first thing that Reidford takes into consideration is the rent that is paid by the tenant. He estimates this up and sees what the capital would be, counting a fair rate of interest. Next he pays a visit to various contractors and asks their opinion as to the value of the property.

MAKAWELI HAS DISSOLVED

(Associated Press Cable.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 28.—The Makaweli Sugar Company, subsidiary of the Hawaiian Sugar Company, dissolved today.

This follows action taken a few days ago by the Makaweli stockholders at their annual meeting in San Francisco. At that time it was voted to disincorporate. The action makes no change in the control of the property, except the formal one of name, according to information this afternoon at Alexander & Baldwin's. The stockholders of Makaweli will receive share for share in Hawaiian Sugar. It is said that the change has been contemplated for some time.

Morgan's Fat Fee 70 Millions

(Associated Press Cable.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 28.—The House committee investigating the steel trust has revealed through an inquiry into the trust books by Farquhar J. McRae, expert accountant, that John Pierpont Morgan got $70,000,000 for organizing the steel trust.

The inquiry has shown that the net earnings of the trust for nine years have amounted to the enormous sum of $1,029,685,389.

The committee concludes that the combination is one in restraint of trade and that it prevents competition.

EXPERT'S PROBE OF CITY AFFAIRS IS NOT BALKED

Honolulu, T. H., Feb. 28.
H. Gooding Field, Esq., Honolulu, T. H.
Dear Sir:—It is my duty at this time to convey to you the information that it is the sense of the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of Honolulu, expressed at a meeting held yesterday evening, that the courtesy heretofore extended to you by said Board has been withdrawn until such time when copies of your credentials will be presented to them.

I beg to remain, Sincerely yours,
(Signed) D. KALANORALANI, Jr., City and County Clerk

The official door to the city hall was slammed today in the face of H. Gooding Field, municipal accounting expert, when the City Clerk, as a result of statements made by the Supervisors at their meeting last night sent the above communication to Mr. Field.

However, Field's investigations into the city's affairs, undertaken at the instance of the Chamber of Commerce, won't be stopped or even hindered. This morning Mayor Fern, his secretary, H. G. Hivenburgh, and Mr. Field visited President E. I. Spaulding of the Chamber of Commerce and held a long conference with him.

Mr. Field stated at the conference that his work of investigating the city's finances and system of organization is practically complete so far as going over the city's books and scrutinizing the departmental work is concerned. He said that what little is still to be done he can do, for as a citizen he has the right to look over the city's books, as they are open for the inspection of every citizen.

Mayor Fern told President Spaulding that his own attitude in the matter is unchanged. Some time ago, long before the Supervisors began to object to Field's activities, Mayor Fern met Mr. Field and looked over his credentials. He was satisfied with

"PASSING THE BUCK" IS ORDER OF DAY ON HEALTH INSPECTORS

The Supervisors at their meeting last night "passed the buck" up to President Pratt of the Health Board and stated that he was the one to ask resignations from several of the inspectors who failed to make good in the recent examinations. At the meeting of the Board of Health tomorrow afternoon it is more than probable that the "buck" will once more be passed back to the city fathers to judge with.

Beyond hearing in an unofficial way that the city fathers had decided to allow him to dismiss the inspectors who failed to pass the exams, President Pratt knows nothing of the status of affairs. As to the two men who did pass, their fate is a sealed mystery to him.

"I do not know what the Supervisors intend to do," he stated this morning. "They do not seem to have done anything regarding the two men who passed. The matter will come up at the meeting of the Health Board tomorrow afternoon. That is all I know of the matter."

Supervisor Kruger, chairman of the Health Committee, is said to be rather doubtful about accepting either of the two men who have passed.

HACKMEN CHARGE CITY FATHERS WITH PLAYING PETTY POLITICS

Honolulu hackmen—at least, an indignant delegation of the local jehus—have a grievance, and they have taken occasion to air the same in a manner that will readily leave the impression that they seek justice at the hands of a Republican Board of Supervisors, or something may be expected to drop with a dismal sickening thud when the true and tried G. P. candidates come before the people for election.

Several drivers from the stand formerly occupying a location on Smith street have appeared before Mayor J.

on whether or not his visit has political significance at this time.

STORK EXPECTED.
NEWPORT, R. I., Feb. 29.—Social circles heard today that the stork was expected to make a visit in July to Colonel John Jacob Astor and his bride, who was Miss Madeline Forbes of New York. The Colonel and Mrs. Astor are now in Egypt.

Servants at the Astor place here have received orders to close up the big "cottage" in this city and go to New York to make the Fifth avenue mansion ready for the return of their master and mistress, who will come home late in May.

Hawaii Must Be United

BY C. S. ALBERT.
(Special Bulletin Correspondence.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 16.—Citizens of Hawaii who desire public improvements must round themselves up and agree in recommending some specific proposition. Pulling and hauling has reached a point where but little will be accomplished in the future. There must be some degree of unanimity and concert of action in announcing just what is wanted and where it should be located for the best interests of all concerned.

This doctrine has been enunciated in the matter of improving Kauai. Many officials here believe it should be extended to other suggested expenditures of public funds for the general good. The authorities are becoming a little fretted by the constant appearance of opposing factions whenever something of merit is advanced. It has become a difficult and disheartening problem for the officials to decide between the rivals and run the risk of being blamed by both sides if anything subsequently goes wrong.

Kauai in Point.

Great interest was taken in the Kauai breakwater and such other improvements as would produce a good harbor and make commercial progress possible. It was predicted that under pressure it would be possible to secure an initial appropriation in the Rivers and Harbors Bill for the next fiscal year. The delegate hustled around and obtained a special estimate on which a request for funds could be based. He framed the matter up in good shape for a start, and then the trouble began.

Strong representations were made to the Board of Engineers for rivers and harbors in behalf of making the improvements at Nawiliwili. This was

GREEN TO WORK FOR CONVENTION IN 'FRISCO, 1913

J. Charles Green, the big advertising man from Frisco, and a prima mover in the Honolulu A. C. Club, left in the Sierra today a confirmed booster for Hawaii. Mr. Green is a director of the Convention League and is after the Hands-Around-the-Pacific Club to hold its next meeting in San Francisco.

"I am going back to San Francisco," he said, "to be a booster for all time for Hawaii. That meeting of all the races in friendly intercourse opens
